

Please reject the NAB's petition against satellite radio. The broadcasters need to start improving their services to consumers to stay competitive instead of relying on the government to bend the laws in their favor. Defend me, the consumer, not the providers. Thank you.